THINK ABOUT IT

Why does sharing make other people feel happy and included?

MY SHARING CHALLENGE

This week, I will look for one thing I can cheerfully share with someone else.

I will share: _____ I will share it with: _____

How do you think they will feel?

REMEMBER

Sharing what we have shows love and kindness.

Answer Page Hospitality – Opening Your Heart and Sharing

- 1) He wanted to show them kindness and hospitality.
- 2) made food for them served them gave them a place to rest
- 3) The LORD promised Abraham that Sarah would have a son. Sarah later had a baby boy named Isaac, just as God had promised.
- 4) She decided to break the cookie in half and give one half to her friend.
- 5) It made the child feel happy and included.
- 6) Adachi introduced herself, invited Chiamaka to play with her and her friends, and included her.
- 7) Mary chose to sit and listen to Jesus. It teaches us that spending time with people and being present with them is an important way to show that we care.
- 8) She learned to respond positively, help with the job and avoid grumbling.
- 9) There may be several correct answers. Go and talk to them.
 - Invite them to sit with you. Invite them to play.
 - Introduce them to your friends. Make them feel welcome.
- 10) Let them play with it too and take turns. Sharing our belongings shows love and kindness.
- 11) ☒ “I can be thankful for what I have and do my best.”
- 12) When we share cheerfully, we are showing God's love.
- 13) Sharing my belongings.
 - Welcoming someone new. Taking turns.
 - Helping without grumbling. Being a good friend.
 - Being thankful. Including someone who is alone.

Memory Verse

“Give thanks in all circumstances for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.” 1 Thessalonians 5:18

Sharing Game

- 1) ☒ Break the cookie in half and share it.
- 2) ☒ Let them play too and take turns.
- 3) Give the child one of your pencils. Let them use one of yours. Offer to share your pencils with them.
- 4) Taking turns with a game
 - ☒ Keeping everything for yourself
 - ☒ Sharing your snack
 - ☒ Refusing to let anyone join your game
 - ☒ Letting someone use something you have
 - ☒ Sharing only because you expect something in return

Sharing shows people that we care about them and want them to be part of what we have.

Family Discussion Guide

Hospitality

Opening Your Heart and Sharing

1. Read Together

Read 1 Thessalonians 5:18 from the Bible together.

"Give thanks in all circumstances for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus."

1 Thessalonians 5:18

2. Talk About the Episode

- What part of the episode did you enjoy the most?
- What did you learn from Abraham's story?
- Why do you think sharing with others is important?
- Which story (Abraham, Chinelo, Adachi, Mary or Lotanna) spoke to you most? Why?

3. Think Deeper

- What does it mean to "show hospitality"?
- Why do you think Abraham welcomed the three visitors even though he did not know who they were?
- In what ways can we be a good friend to someone who is new or lonely?
- Why is it important to share cheerfully and not grumble?

4. Real Life Application

- When might it be difficult to share? What could help you to still do it?
- How can we show hospitality at home, at school or in our community?
- What can we do when we are asked to do something we don't want to do?
- How can we choose to be grateful instead of grumbling?

5. Family Challenge

As a family, choose one or two challenges to try this week:

- ☐ Look for a way to share something with someone.
- ☐ Welcome or include someone who is new or lonely.
- ☐ Do a task cheerfully without grumbling.
- ☐ Say "thank you" to God each day for what we have.
- ☐ Be kind and helpful to a visitor or guest.

6. Pray Together

Thank God for all the good things He has given you. Ask Him to help your family to be cheerful in sharing, kind to others, and to trust His plan, just like Abraham did.

Memory Verse

"Give thanks in all circumstances for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus."

1 Thessalonians 5:18

 SING ALONG!

Sharing & Friendship Songs

Name: _____

THE SHARING SONG

(Tune: "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star")

Verse 1

Sharing, sharing, it's so fun,

It brings joy to everyone.

When we give with all our heart,

God's love we surely impart.

Sharing, sharing, it's so fun,

It brings joy to everyone.

Verse 2

Abraham shared with delight,

Welcomed angels in his sight.

We can share like him each day,

Showing kindness in our way.

Sharing, sharing, it's so fun,

It brings joy to everyone.

THE FRIENDSHIP SONG

(Tune: "If You're Happy and You Know It")

Verse 1

If you see someone alone, be a friend,

If you see someone alone, be a friend,

Share a smile, share a game,

Show God's love, it's not a shame,

If you see someone alone, be a friend.

Verse 2

When you meet someone new, say hello,

When you meet someone new, say hello,

Share your time, share your heart,

That's the way to make a start,

When you meet someone new, say hello.

SING IT TOGETHER!

Can you sing both songs with your family?

☐ The Sharing Song

☐ The Friendship Song

Which song did you enjoy singing most?
